We have received an invitation to a gathering called “International Exchange Day” at Tokyo Metropolitan Kokusai High School.

It is a unique public high school with special emphasis on international understanding founded by Tokyo Metropolitan Government.

At Kokusai High school, students can learn many foreign languages, such as German, French, Spanish and Korean which are not commonly taught at high school level.

They would love to see you the international students studying in Japan! Why don't you visit the school and have a great time with them?

Day & Time: Sat. 17th JUN, 2017 10 : 00 - 11 : 30

Location: Tokyo Metropolitan Kokusai High School

( 7-minutes walk from Komaba-todaimae Station, Keio Inokashira Line )

Fees: None, but you need to bring own transportation fare.

How to apply; Please email us iso@office.uec.ac.jp
