

Street Walking with Japanese Culture Experience

Local shops around Chofu&Fuda station welcome international students and have a tour stopping at some shops to experience Japanese culture. The tour ends up at Fudatenjin shrine where Autumn festival is held on the same day.

The students tasting Japanese tea.

The Autumn Festival at Fudatenjin shrine.

DATE&TIME: Friday, November 3, 2017.
11AM-2PM.(rain or shine)

SERVICE FEE: Free

ENTRY: Contact us by e-mail.

kankou@w2.city.chofu.tokyo.jp

Please give us your name(phonetic), phone No., address, age, sex and nationality.

MAP&MEET UP POINT: details on the backside

JAPANESE CULTURE WORKSHOP:

書 Writing

- Japanese calligraphy

箸 Chopsticks

- Try to pick up beans

酒 Sake

- a traditional ceremony to open barrel sake by cracking

厄 Expelling Evil

- Scatter roasted soybeans to drive demons away

琴 Harp

- Try to play Koto(Japanese harp)

茶 Tea

- Complimentary green tea

Please note that the schedule might be changed without any notice.

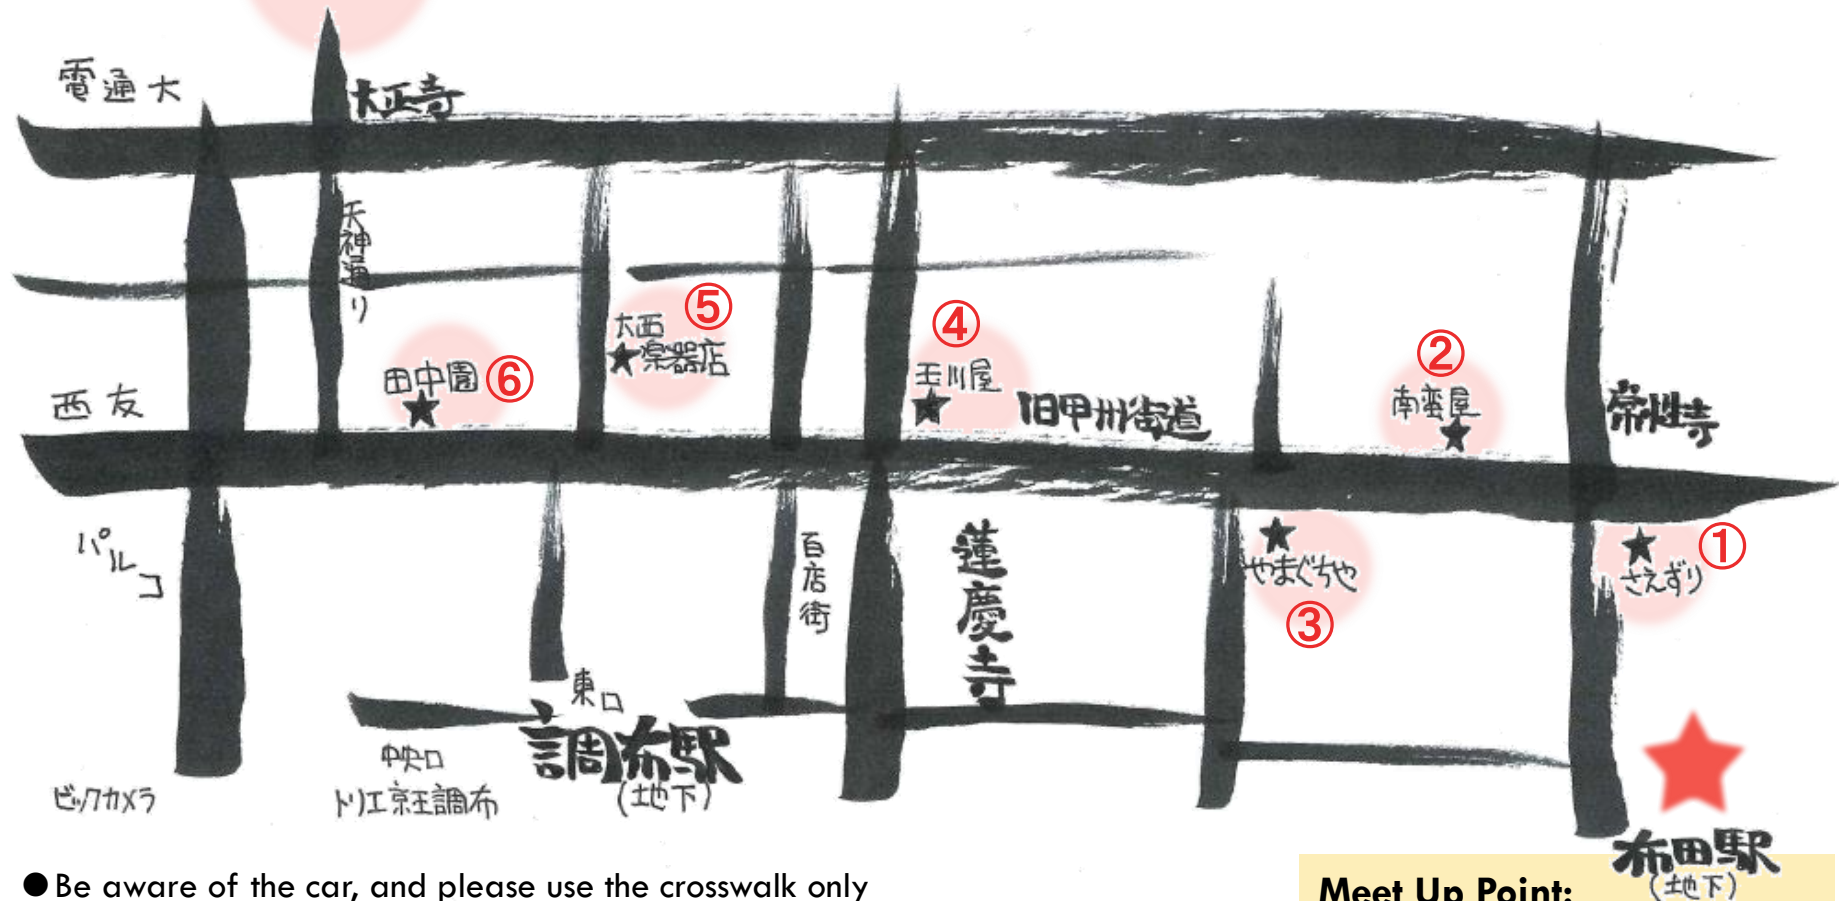

Organized: 3 store societies along Kyu-Koushu-Kaido. Cooperated: City of Chofu, Chofu-Kikaku-Gumi.

Contact: Industries Promotion Section, Chofu. ☎042-481-7185

いろいろマルシェ

布多天神社

The Walking Map

- Be aware of the car, and please use the crosswalk only
- This tour goes along the Kyo-Kousyu Kaido(旧甲州街道) .

This is a road established by Edo government connecting Edo and Kai Province.
In the Edo period, there were guest houses and shops along the road and this area once flourished as an inn town.

Meet Up Point:

Convenience store(LAWSON)
in front of Fuda sta.
(next to Chofu sta.)

Meet Up Time: 11AM